

THE SPIRIT

THE SPIRIT

OF

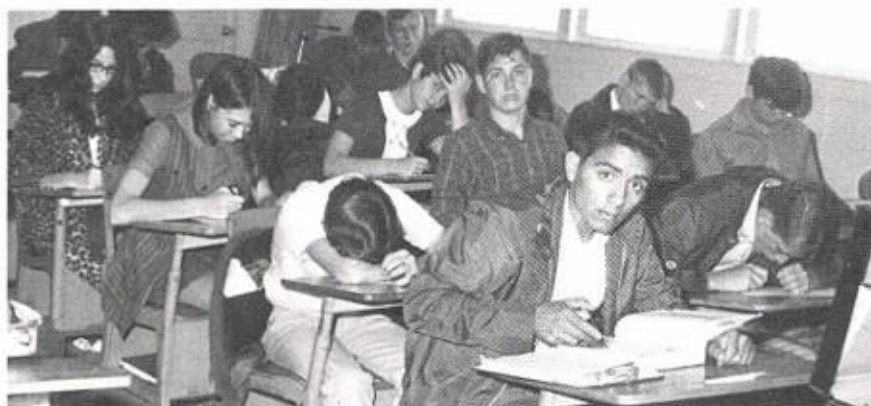

"71"

FOREWORD

A school building is constructed of steel and cement, strong and permanent, but it is designed to accommodate an ever-changing flow of students. Year after year buses empty their loads each morning, and people stream in waves into the hallways and classrooms. To the rhythm of bells, tides of people wash in and out of the rooms and corridors and finally back to the buses, leaving the building empty. Carl Sandburg in his poem "Skyscraper" says, "It is the men and women, boys and girls so poured in and out all day that give the building a soul of dreams and thoughts and memories." As each individual forms a part of the mass, so each personality contributes to the whole of Seagoville High School's soul - that abstract thing we call school spirit. The Spirit Staff presents this abstract collection of people and events which filled our school year. It is an abstract of YESTERDAYS.

YESTERDAYS . . .

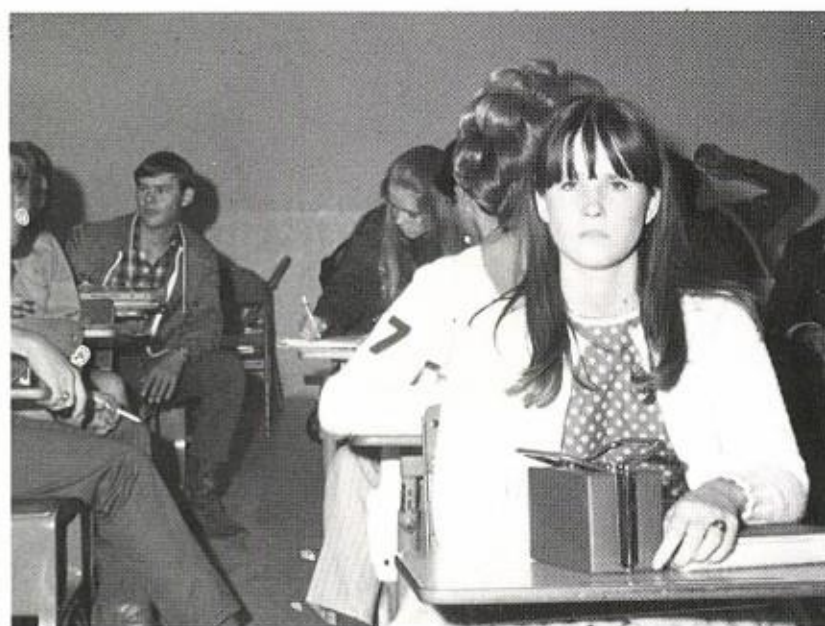

WONDER THAT A THOUSAND

A HUNDRED OF THEM FILLED WITH JOY

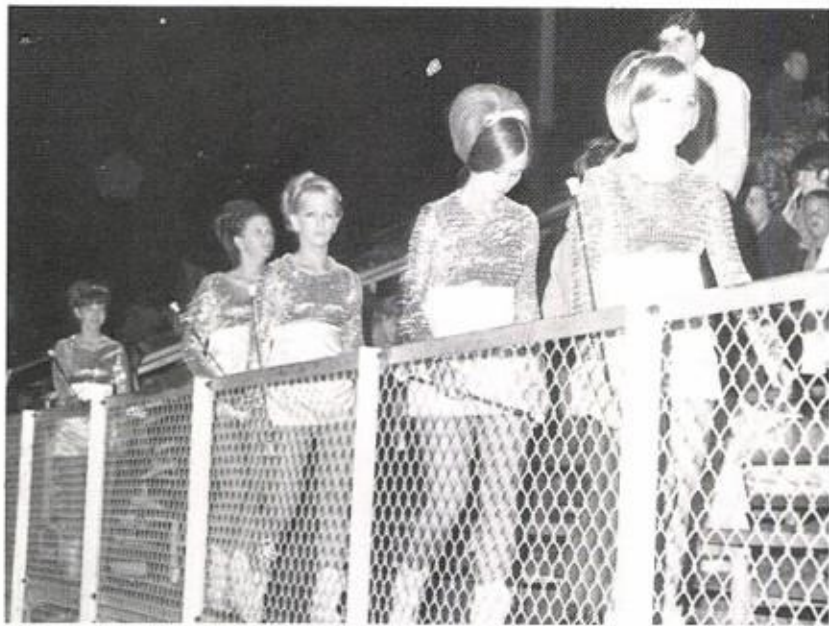

TOMORROWS MAY NEVER BRING.

THE EVENTS OF YESTERDAY

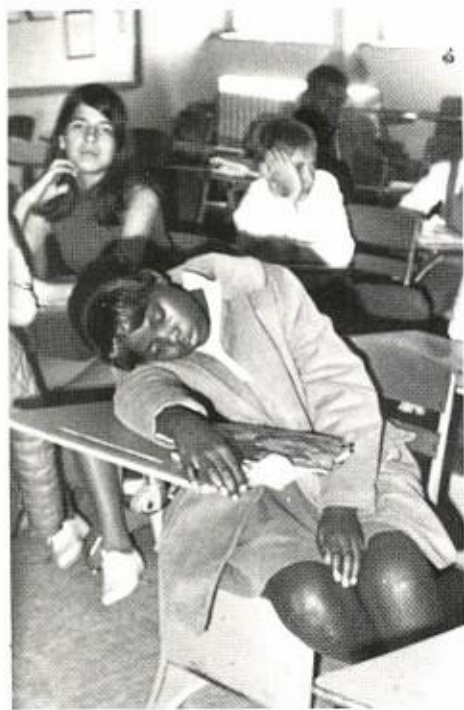

TAKE THEIR FINAL FORM

BETWEEN THE PAGES

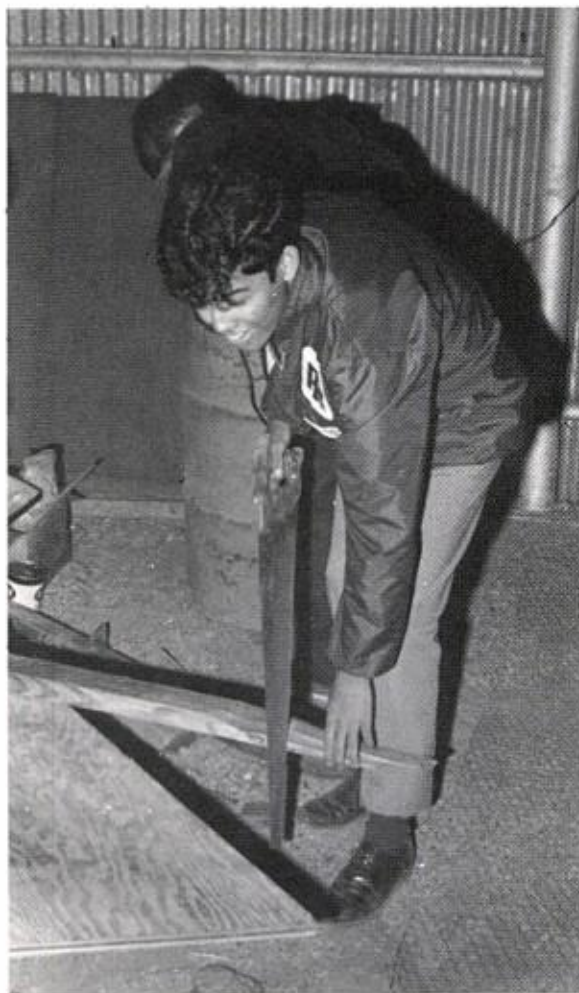

OF A BOOK.

SUCH AN IMPORTANT THING

THOSE WERE THE DAYS,

TO HOLD THE KEY TO MEMORIES.

MY FRIEND . . .

MRS. WINNIE CHAPPELL

Mrs. Chappell is always eager to help new students with any of their problems.

And sometimes those problems are really tough ones!

I wonder if I gave him the right advice?

Even her fellow-teachers seek her wise advice!

WHAT IS A TEACHER?

BEGIN WITH A WOMAN WHO REALLY LIKES YOUNG PEOPLE — ADD ENOUGH UNDERSTANDING TO BRIDGE THE GENERATION GAP — ENOUGH COMPASSION TO OVERLOOK THE MISTAKES IN JUDGEMENT MADE BY THOSE OF US WHO ARE LEARNING TO LIVE — ENOUGH PATIENCE TO PLEASANTLY AND PERSISTENTLY TRY TO INSTILL WITHIN US A LOVE OF BEAUTY AND CONSIDERATION FOR OUR FELLOWMAN — ENOUGH GRACIOUSNESS TO SERVE AS AN EXAMPLE TO US IN OUR

QUEST OF THE TRUE GOOD LIFE — ENOUGH KNOWLEDGE TO ASSURE US OF POSITIVE INSTRUCTION — ENOUGH INITIATIVE TO MAKE US WANT TO LEARN AND ENOUGH LOVE TO MAKE US LIKE OURSELVES. GATHER ALL THIS TOGETHER AND YOU FIND AN EXACT DESCRIPTION OF A REAL LADY. IT IS WITH THE UTMOST HUMILITY THAT WE DEDICATE THE 1970-71 SPIRIT AS A SMALL TOKEN OF OUR GRATITUDE TO

Ah! Another lost soul seeks aid and comfort from a dedicated teacher!

Why do you suppose they think I have all the answers?
(SHE DOES!)

Mrs. Chappell takes time out to talk to one of her students from last year.

My, my! She worries. I do hope this test isn't too difficult!

Dear Faculty and Students:

Four years ago the class of 1971 launched their journey here as freshmen, both on ventures of aspiration for growth and service. Their past four years have been marked by illustrious growth and progress. They are to be commended for the fruits of their efforts.

The mastering of the many complexities of leadership has become actuality during their tenure as students at Seagoville High School. Leadership is not moral, neither it is immoral. It is amoral. Leaders can be good, or bad. It is the direction and outcomes of leadership that count. Immortality is the trademark of the wholesome leader, one who leads to a better and nobler life. An idea, an attitude, an aspiration planted in the minds of men will continue to bear fruit with each new generation. "The final test of a leader is that he leaves behind him in other men the conviction and the will to carry on." It is my belief that the class of 1971 has left us such a will and conviction. They will continue to serve as guidelines for each new class at S. H. S.

Dear Faculty and Students:

It gives me great satisfaction to be a part of such a fine Educational Organization that exists at Seagoville High School. This is truly a rewarding experience for me.

Your sense of pride and devotion in working toward worthwhile and meaningful goals shows progress in the direction of maturity. Progress will eventually lead to success, happiness, and security.

To the graduating seniors of 1971, may you continue to gather the necessary tools to accomplish your goals. To build a solid foundation, means being self productive citizens. "U GOTTA WANNA."

Dear Students and Faculty:

This year has truly been a successful and rewarding one. Giant strides were made toward more understanding and cooperation between students, faculty, and administration. Undoubtedly this atmosphere on the campus created an environment more conducive to learning. My hope is that we constantly continue to improve this relationship.

Best of happiness and success to the graduating seniors as they pursue their life's endeavors.

Sincerely,

Billie J. Stanley

"You mean Miss Loving is absent???"

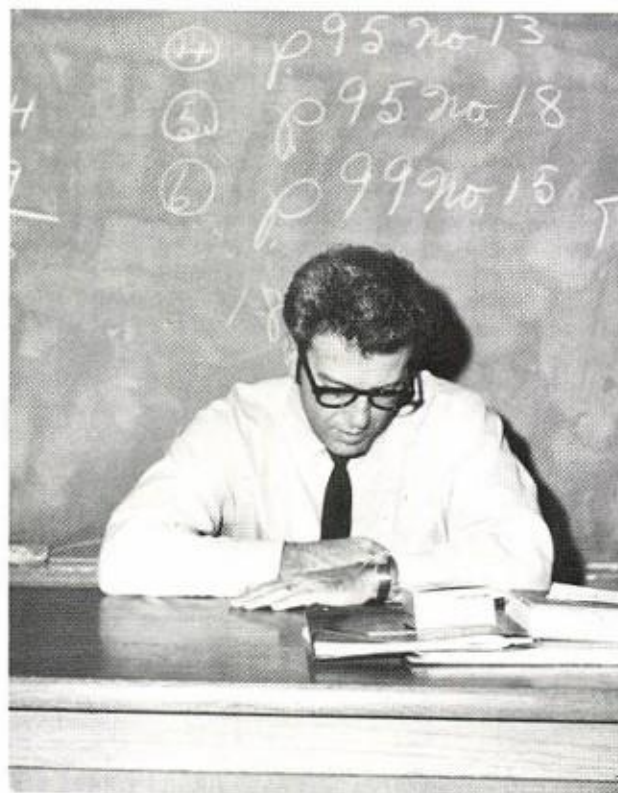

"Now let's see? Who gave me that thousand dollar bill???"

"I wonder if the President is this nervous when he has to speak to a group?"

"So I made my first mistake, BIG DEAL!!!"

"Now let me see, Mickey's big hand is on the three and ..."

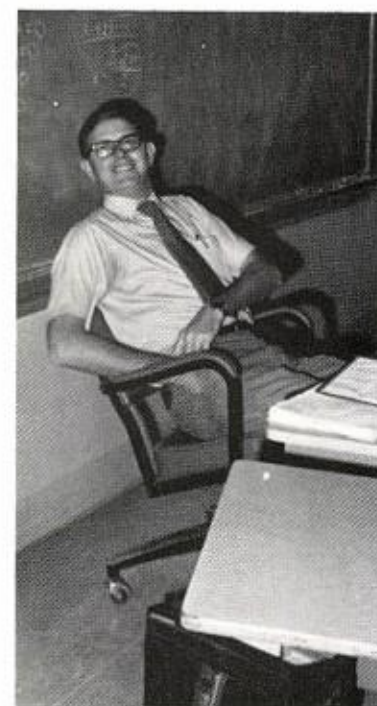

"I've got that 'dial' feeling."

"Hay! Anyone want to come to a paper grading party?"

"First I'll conquer the lunchroom, then the world ..."

"Mr. Wigley, I'll give you $1.00 for that paddle."

"Paddle?" "What does he need with a paddle?"

"The mystery skulker strikes again."

"I hid my lunch in here and someone stole it."

"Golly, I wish my nose wasn't so lopsided!!!"

"The senior class wouldn't dare skip tomorrow."

"That boy who just passed me was making at least 90 M.P.H."

"What do you do when everyone makes an F???"

"Okay, okay, you proved your point. You can reach a note higher than Maria Callas."

"MR. LIGON! MR. LIGON! The entire senior class is skipping!!!"

"I forgot to get the grades."

"But Mr. Burch I keep trying to tell you, 2 and 2 are not 15."

"Hay Miss Hayn, who gave you the nice 'charm bracelet'???"

"Miss Pierce loves to grade papers ..."

"There's a frog in my purse ..."

"Eagerly going to class."

"Only 2 more minutes, and school's out."

"Who loves to grade papers? She's really S-I-C-K ..."

"Someone wrote me a great fan letter."

"Whee, whee, whee said the little pig all the way home ..."

"Walking happy ..."

"What's this, a sleeping contest?"

"Maybe I need to use Jergens hand cream ..."

"Keep your hands off my hand cream, Coach ..."

"Can't get off the launching pad?"
